

LION, TIGER AND BEARS (Zoo)

Jim Bowman

Number off one...two...three, etc. One's become the Lions, twos the Tigers, and threes the Bears. Sit or stand in a circle. The person in the center then calls out one of the names of the animals. That animal named must change positions in the circle. It cannot be to a spot to either side. The person in the center tries to take one of these person's place. If they want everyone to move then say "Zoo!"
